PRIVACY, CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

Family Planning Welfare Association NT [FPWNT] is committed to compliance with relevant privacy, confidentiality and security legislation – to protect our clients, our staff and our organisation. As a part of this, individuals are required to understand their obligations and responsibilities including what it means to sign this privacy, confidentiality and security agreement.

All persons, including FPWNT employees, contractors, volunteers and students who come into contact with, or have access to, confidential information have a responsibility to maintain privacy, confidentiality and security of that information. Confidential information may include (but is not limited to) information relating to:

- ❖ Clients and/or family members e.g. health records.
- ❖ Employees, contractors, volunteers, students e.g. salaries, employment records
- ❖ Third parties e.g. vendor contracts, computer programs, technology
- ❖ Business information e.g. financial records, reports, memos, contracts, computer programs, technology
- ❖ Operations improvement, quality assurance, peer review

FPWNT will ensure your personal training information is secure at all times.

FPWNT will, when required, submit data sourced from this enrolment form to the national VET administrative collection as a regulatory requirement of our RTO compliance (third party).

The information we collect may be therefore requested by VET regulators and associated Government Departments and your employer –only if your employer paid for your training.

If you have any questions or concerns relating to privacy, confidentiality or security of information, please contact the Chief Executive Officer of FPWNT.
